

Welcome to CASE!

You have been given an Associate membership to CASE. This entitles you to receive four issues of our quarterly magazine in the mail, as well as discounts on most CASE events. You also receive access to resources on the CASE website (www.case.edu.au) that are for the exclusive use of our Associates. We hope these resources will be useful for study, teaching and research. To activate your access you will need to register as a member of the website. You will find comprehensive instructions about how to register as a member on the website.

CASE aims to explore the place of Christian faith in the contemporary intellectual world. It undertakes traditional apologetics, defending the major tenets of Christianity, and also engages more broadly in dialogue with other world views and philosophies. At CASE we examine how Christianity makes sense in today's world, and how it makes sense of today's world.

We hope you are stimulated by and enjoy Case.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Trevor Cairney". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail on the final letter.

Professor Trevor Cairney,
Director, Centre for Apologetic Scholarship and Education (CASE)
New College, University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. Ph. (02) 9381 1999.